DEDICATION

MR. BRADY

When there is a plan to be made or a job to be done Mr. Brady offers his ingenuity and artistic skill. Cheerful, patient, and enthusiastic he has given much to M.H.S. We, the class of 1959, sincerely dedicate our yearbook to one who has brightened our way, both in our classwork and in extracurricular activities during the past two years.

IN MEMORIAM

BRIAN MICHAEL

We shall always remember Brian's pleasant ways, his neverfailing cheerfulness, and his genuine sincerity. In his memory his classmates have created the Brian Michael Safety Scholarship to aid ambitious students in furthering their education.

*"God, who made boys for his delight
Stoops in a day of grief . . .
And calls them in, in from the night."*

MISS WETHERELL

In appreciation for her helpfulness, cheerfulness, and friendly interest, the staff affectionately recognizes the efforts of Miss Dorothy Wetherell, our sophomore English teacher and yearbook advisor, in this, the 1959 edition of the Timaron.

APPRECIATION

In appreciation for his many years of un-failing and devoted service to the music department of the Middleboro schools, the staff pays tribute to Mr. Luther Churchill, teacher and friend, in his final year at Memorial High School.

MR. CHURCHILL

MR. DEICH

MR. KUNCES

Superintendent of Schools

Members of the Class of 1959:

Your graduation from M.H.S. brings to a close your public school education and the recent twelve years become disguised in the shadows of yesteryear. And, as it should be, every ending leads to a beginning. Because you are individuals, each of you will be charting a course in a different direction. We, who have taught you, fervently hope that the silhouettes of your future give honor and credit to your parents, school and community and happiness to yourself.

Sincerely,
Samuel Deich, Principal

Seated, left to right: Miss Anacki, Miss O'Neil, Miss Jenness, Mrs. Batchelder, Mrs. Gates, Mrs. Buck, Mrs. Young, Miss Roht.
Standing: Miss Ryder, Miss Thomas, Mrs. Pardy, Miss Whitty, Mrs. Moore, Mr. Soule, Mr. Card, Mr. Medici, and Mr. Masi.

FACULTY

Seated, left to right: Mr. Battis, Mr. Brady, Miss Dupee, Miss Veazie, Mrs. Kraus, Mr. King. Standing: Mr. Farley, Mr. Tufts, Mr. James, Mr. Kearney, Mr. Brown, and Mr. Antone.

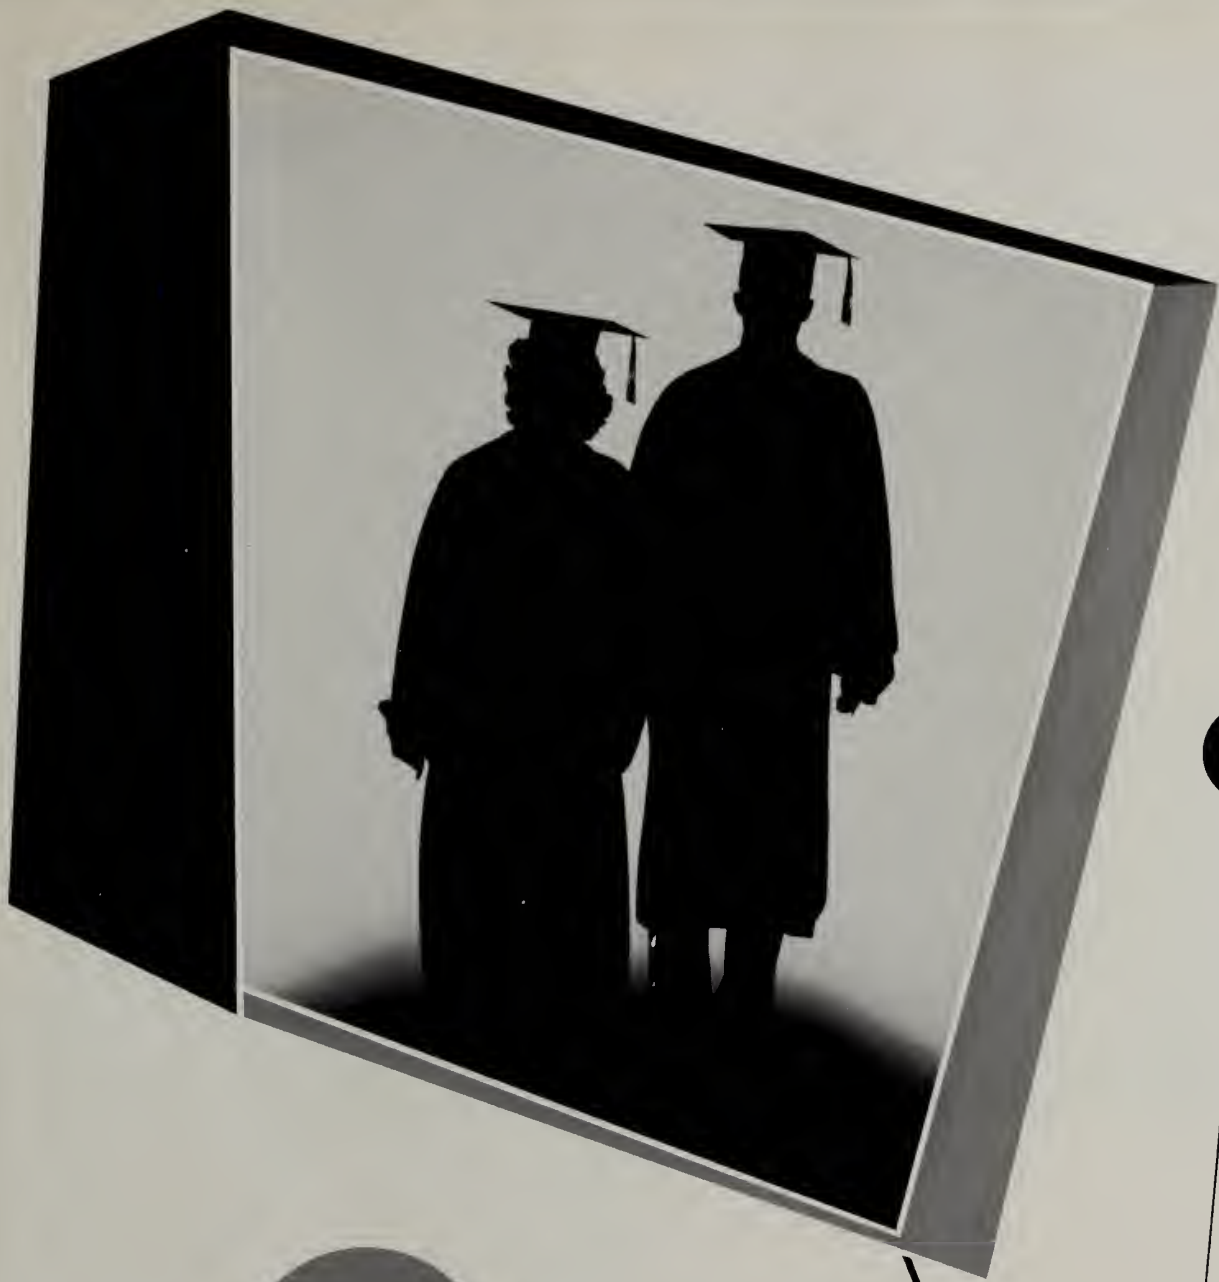

*Left to right: Athan Savas
and Barbara G. Oliver*

EDITORS' NOTE

As co-editors of the 1959 Timaron, we have attempted to capture the shadows of our experiences at M.H.S. and to mold them into the form of lasting silhouettes. These are the past four years: the sharp shadows of the goalposts on crisp Saturday afternoons in the fall, the dim shadows of couples drifting dreamily across the dance floor, but, most of all, the shadow of the student toiling with his books late into the night. These silhouettes which we give you are only memories. They are not living substance, yet they recall to us the good counsel, the friendliness, and the beginnings of knowledge which we have found at Memorial High School.

CLASS HISTORY

As we march in our blue and black robes to take our places at Graduation Exercises, I find myself reminiscing about the past four years.

My mind wanders back to our first class meeting with Jim Bonnar presiding, assisted by the other officers: Dave Hanson, Pat Rogers, and Madelyn Medeiros. Madelyn was also the captain of the freshman cheering squad, which included Bonnie Blais, Pat Carey, Leah Coppock, Sue Edgerly, Jeanne Perkins, and Nancy Robinson. Mrs. Moriarty was our cheerleaders' advisor as well as our class advisor. Everyone was happy when Pat Rogers and Jim Bonnar were tapped for Silver "M." We ended our Freshman year with the "Get Acquainted Social," which was held for the incoming Freshmen.

The noise of a bus rumbling by outside reminds me of our trip to the Boston Museum of Science with Mr. Almeida, our biology teacher. Our Sophomore year was full of fun and activities as we got more used to the excitement of high school life. The Christmas "Snow Ball" was well run by Athan Savas, Jim Bonnar, Greta Hale, and June Hall, our officers, and by Miss Whitty, our advisor. Three more of our classmates were tapped for Silver "M": Bonnie Blais, John Swartz, and Dave Hanson. To end the year, we had an exciting outing at Nantasket Beach.

Looking down at my beautiful class ring, I think of the hours we spent choosing it. The Junior year has so many happy times such as the Prom. The theme suggested by Judy Wilcox was "Moonlight Serenade," and with the fountains, flowers, and spotlights everyone felt they were truly dancing in the moonlight. Miss O'Neil, our advisor, helped our officers: John Swartz, Frank Leo, Nancy Robinson, and Barbara Oliver, to make our prom one of the grandest. A big event in the spring was the induction of twenty-four of our classmates into the National Honor Society. Nano and Deanne were chosen for Silver "M." As usual, the Girls' League trip to Ferring's Pond in June was fun.

They've started passing out the diplomas already! One by one my classmates go up to the platform. As I watch them, I remember how much I anticipated my Senior Year. Our class officers, Dave Guilford, Jim Pollard, Pat Rogers, Ross Perry, and the class council couldn't have provided better leadership. The Seniors were responsible for the Coronation Dance, which was a great success. At the football rally in November, Jim Longworth and Bob Guidaboni, football co-captains, received their sweaters along with Dave Hanson, Darragh Harlow, Ed Lizotte, Tom Walsh, and Don White. During the December tapping ceremony Athan Savas and Lindora Cabral became members of the Silver "M." Also five additional members were added to the National Honor Society.

After midyears were over, our activities kept us busy, and basketball provided enjoyment for all. Senior players included Dave Guilford and Darragh, co-captains, and Dave Hanson, Jim Bonnar, and Bob Rubeski as members of the team. Our cute cheerleaders, Captain Bonnie Blais, Sue Edgerly, Madelyn Medeiros, and Jeanne Perkins, provided an extra attraction at every game. After three months of rehearsals, our class put on the hilarious comedy, "Curtain Going Up." We'll never forget the hours of work Miss Anacki, our director, put into the play, and what a beautiful Southern stage setting Mr. Brady designed for us.

When spring rolled around, excitement and tension kept building. The National Honor Trip to New York added to the excitement. Then, under the supervision of Mr. King, our advisor, we began planning for Senior Week. Along with Class Night and the Class Trip we had hundreds of parties, and the girls tried their best to get sun-tanned for the Reception.

It's all happened so quickly that it seems impossible for me to be sitting here waiting to receive my diploma. I'll never forget the friends, the fun, and the wisdom which high school has given me. These are important landmarks in my life, and their silhouettes will always be with me in memory.

CLASS WILL

In this special legacy we the graduating class of the 59th year of this twentieth century, being completely unstable, after years of experience and unlimited knowledge, bequeath these items of invaluable worthlessness to unsuspecting heirs.

I. To the "Young'uns," (Sophomores and Freshmen), we leave an honorary membership card to the Mickey Mouse Club.

II. To the Class of 1960 we leave the record, "Memories Are Made of This."

III. For the weary teachers we leave a bottle of "Nature's", "Serutan" spelt backwards, of course.

ROLAND GANGONE leaves his "key" to the church to Ronald Keith.

THE TRIG CLASS leaves Mrs. Buck in infinity.

To Brenda Powers is left a pixie haircut, styled by JEAN MORGAN.

MARY KING leaves Daddy . . . at last!

To the shop, JOAN LEONARDO bequeaths her "Chevy."

MADELYN MEDEIROS leaves for Fisher . . . not the school.

WILLIAM ALLAN and DAVID THOMPSON leave the First National to Johnny Corderio, an A&P employee.

LINDA McCALLUM leaves to sail up the Lawrence . . . Red.

To Tiger Allen, FRANK LEO leaves his "Hey, Ma!"

FANNY DOUZANIS leaves the chemistry lab. (Mr. King, aren't you glad?)

ROBERT GUIDOBONI and DONALD WHITE leave their muscles? . . . behind with the other athletic equipment.

To next year's office girls, CAROL BRIGGS leaves a soggy handkerchief.

DAVID GUILFORD, DEANNE DONNER, DE BERNIER, and JUNE HALL leave Paul, Marilyn, Ronnie, and Barbara . . . only to see them again at home.

To two Junior boys, TOM WALSH and BRUCE DES-ROSIERS leave "Problems."

GRETA HALE and JIM POLLARD leave together.

To underclassmen with good imaginations, ROSY POWERS bequeaths Chester and Alice.

DAVID HANSON and JOHN McCULLOCH leave eating fudge . . . Now we know where the profits went.

PATRICIA DUNHAM leaves her melodious strings (vocal and violin) to Eleanor Walker.

To Martha Wilmot, JANICE PIERCE bequeaths her chewed fingernails.

JIM LONGWORTH leaves Ed Grishy . . . walking.

KATHY McDONALD, AUDREY DUELL, BEVERLY CASWELL and CYNTHIA ASHLEY leave to change their theme song from the Alma Mater to the Wedding March.

NANCY TOMKIEWICZ and ROSS PERRY leave . . . Shutup and keep walking!

To Pinky Clark, Janet Blais, and Larry Giberti, CAROL GRAY, CAROLYN BLOUIM, and JIMMY MELEO leave their bashful ways.

PAMELA MATTIE and SANDY ERICKSON leave the tape recording machine . . . Ohh! What things were said on that!

The Indian infested woods of Lakeville are returned to by REBECCA PEABODY, CATHY PARRY, JEANNE GOODREAU, ARDIS REYNOLDS, and LYNDA HALL, leaving their "coonskin" hats behind.

WILLY ROBBINS leaves every full waste basket and every full pencil sharpener—overflowing.

To any other poor dislocated person, SUSAN EDGERLY leaves her knee bandage.

HENRY LAVALLEY leaves with a ring on his finger, not through his nose.

MARGERY WASHBURN leaves her Kappa Kappa frat pin . . . Oh, come on, Margery, we all must leave something!

DENNIS MCGUNAGLE leaves his truck . . . stuck.

To Daniel Silva, JOHN TUBMAN leaves his height.

SANDRA GRANT, KARLA LEHTOMAA, LINDA AUSTIN, JOAN BOOTHMAN, DIANNE JESSE, DIANNA BURRELL, and DONNA NEWTON leave, keeping their books with their short hands typing.

JUDY WILCOX leaves her baton for the scalpel and "Harvard Medical School."

DARRAGH HARLOW leaves his breath behind, while being chased out of the school . . . by girls!

JUDY MacLEAN, PATRICIA HATHAWAY, and SHIRLEY SMALL, future nurses, leave sailing off on the S.S. "Blood Vessel."

BETH WHITEHEAD leaves . . . Oops! I almost forgot my diploma.

MAUREEN CHASE, KATHY PERKINS, and JOANNE BURKE leave to take their places standing at the front of the classroom, instead of sitting at the back of the room.

JO POHLMAN leaves in a cloud of blue . . . What? Exhaust fumes, naturally.

To future biology classes, BEVERLY BECKMAN wills her body.

STEWART FLANDERS and "NANO" ROBINSON leave no more dented fenders . . . My, weren't we lucky to have insurance.

ALFRED ORTELT, BOB HOGAN, BOB RUBESKI, and FRAN OTTO leave their "tranquilizers" to underclassmen with "vim and vigor."

To Danny Gibbons, a cool stepper, ROY PARKER leaves his "black and white saddle shoes."

To Bob and Denny, RUTHANN FLYNN and LINDA CLARK leave one more year of study . . . ?

ARDITH AUSTIN, LOIS ERICKSON, and CAROL GERRIOR leave Mr. Churchill tone deaf!

To an underclassman interested in husbandry, PAUL CONDON wills his pig.

JAMES BONNAR leaves quoting his favorite subject . . . "Veni, Vedi, Vici!"

BONNIE BLAIS and JEANNE PERKINS leave the cafeteria devoid of food . . . Even government granted bread and butter!

To Valerie Mulkern, LINDY CABRAL wills a car like her Bessie . . . She just couldn't part with the old gal.

GINNY WHOLAN, CYNTHIA BECKER, and PAT CAREY leave singing . . . "Old Cape Cod, here we come."

To the editors of next year's yearbook, BARBARA OLI-

VER and ATHAN SAVAS leave their gold covered pill box . . . just full of headaches!

DAVID FONTAINE leaves in a "gail" of wind, while ELLEN SHURTLEFF leaves in a "canoe" towards the club.

To those who love horses, JANICE NEWCOMB wills all her "horse" sense.

HELYN HATHAWAY (art student) leaves painting the town.

SANDRA LEACH and LLEWELLA VICKERY leave their hearts in the "Service" of their country.

To Miss Jenness, DICK RYDER leaves his red hair and freckles.

PAT ROGERS leaves the "Napoleonic Wars" to next year's Modern History class . . . sigh!

CHESTER PITTSLEY leaves the office girls . . . alone.

To Miss Thomas, JON HARRIS leaves his influence with Clement Riley.

KAROL ANN ROBBINS leaves her spare time and "alibis" to "Dutchy" Jackson.

ED LIZOTTE leaves singing "My Bonnie Lies Over the Ocean."

To Greg King, JOHN SWARTZ leaves his Silver "M" pin, (Accidents do happen.)

BOB DEROISER, SALLY BENSON, and GEORGE DUBOLD leave . . . finally, finally!

BOB CLARK and RICHARD DEMORANVILLE leave . . . if their cars will start.

To Linnea Nyberg, GALE STARR leaves her . . . (Well, if you don't know, we ain't gonna tell ya!)

To other newcomers at school, BETTE PITTS leaves her volume on "How To Make Fast Friends" . . . We beg your pardon, it's "How To Make Friends Fast."

To Miss Anacki, the SENIOR PLAY CAST leaves the "brown study."

TOMMY RICHARDS leaves at his usual snail's pace!

In testimony whereof we hereunto set our hands and in the presence of these honest but mentally unbalanced witnesses, sworn before the Justice of Peace, we declare this to be our last will and testament in this year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and fifty nine.

CLASS PROPHECY

AROUND THE WORLD IN 79 DAYS—1969

We see the steeples of the Middleboro fade gently into the background as we, Deanne Donner, Jeannie Perkins, Nancy Robinson, and Maureen Chase, cruise down the Taunton River on the first leg of our journey around the world.

As we enter Long Island Sound, the salty Atlantic waves break forth over our forward deck. We thought we were doomed until Admiral John McCulloch of the U. S. Coast Guard arrived upon the scene. He offered to lead us safely into New York harbor.

Once we had secured our craft, with the help of dock manager Bob Rubeski, we decided to spend a time in the big city. We took a taxi, driven by one time race car driver, Frank Leo, to Gale Starr's colossal new multibillion dollar theater. Attending the Broadway musical we spotted Beverly Beckman singing the lead in "Springtime Along the Nemasket" written by Margie Washburn. We found that our wardrobes were inadequate for our journey, so we entered a swank 5th Avenue shop owned by Nancy Tomkiewicz. Waiting for the commencement of the fashion show, we had a chance to talk to designers Dolores Mattos and Greta Hale. Leading the procession of models were Virginia Wholan and Madelyn Medeiros. We hurried from the show to the government office of Bill Allen where his secretary Pam Mattie gave us our visas for South America.

Cruising southward along the eastern coast, we stopped briefly at Fort Dix where we saw General James Longworth drilling his men. In the Nation's Capital we found Ardis Reynolds, master-mind scientist, brewing up a formula for a rocket to send the capital up to cloud seven. For some reason we left this area quickly. From Parris Island, the "Parris Island Loverboy" Bob Guidaboni waved to us from the shore.

In Miami we were upset to find millionaire playboy, Henry LeValley, resting uncomfortably in the hospital awaiting the decision of Dr. James M. Bonnar III. However Henry's nurses, Carol Gray, Georgene Pohlman, and Joan Leonardo were trying to make him as comfortable as possible. Just as we left, Dr. Bonnar's secretary, Patricia Rogers, came in with the decision; but at this untimely moment we took our leave.

Our next stop was at Lackland Air Force Base in San Antonio, Texas, where we found Captain Ed Lizotte and Lieutenant Jon Harris desperately trying to wake up Bruce DesRosiers who had fallen asleep at the controls at an altitude of 20,000 feet! It looked as if Janice Pierce, airline nurse, would have her first assignment.

Later in Brazil we found Tom Richards in a tree on his banana plantation vainly trying to capture a banana-stealing monkey. However, we had trouble discerning which was the monkey! In Bolivia we came across Kathleen McDonald and her companions Rebecca Peabody and Mary Jane Travis who had finally succeeded in persuading the cannibals to give up their traditional profession.

Overwhelmed by the heat, we decided to travel on. We crossed the Atlantic as guests on a Navy ship. We were treated like dignitaries by the sailors who included Roy Parker, George Dubord, Chester Pittsley, and Bill Robbins. The only one who suffered illness on board was Carol Gerrior, the ship's dietician. Navy nurse, Judy Wilcox, blamed the illness on overeating. Boom, Boom! Here we are in the refreshing? climate of South Africa! Who do we find but Jean Morgan writing a book called Spear Throwing Can Be Fun. Crossing the Sahara we were refreshed at Dennis McGunagle's Hot Dog Stand. We were served by "camel hops" Barbara Oliver and Lindora Cabral. Barbara remarked that noted psychiatrist Susan Edgerly, with her patient Bonnie Blais, had passed through only a few days before on their way to Dr. Austin's mental center in England.

From the Sahara we took a giant step to Madrid. Intrigued by screaming crowds, we were drawn to the site of a bull fight. Who should we see but Richard Ryder as a toreador.—Oh, No!—The bull has confused Dick's red hair with his red cape! He need not worry, though, for Spain's most beautiful seniorita, Bette Pitts is cheering him on. Here comes another rose—Good Luck, Dick.

In gay Paris we saw starving artists Joan Boothman and Pat Dunham, who were painting a mural for the mansion of Countess Linda Austin. As we flew from Paris on our way to Norway, we narrowly missed Dave Fontaine, who was taking pictures atop the Eiffel Tower.

At a winter resort in Norway we were greeted with the news that ski instructor Alfred Ortelt had mistakenly led his class of beginners, actress Carol Briggs, businessman Francis Otto, and interior decorator Cynthia Ashley, down the expert slope. The group was now residing in the hospital under the care of nurses Lynda Hall and Cathryn Parry.

On our way through Germany we headed for an auto showroom to secure a foreign car with which to tour the country. Dealers Dick DeMoranville and Bob Clark had their model, Janice Newcomb, demonstrate one car's features. We would have taken this, but tall Jan was stuck behind the wheel; so we took another and sped away. We visited the American Embassy at Berlin, where we had a conference with the renowned American Ambassador to Germany, Donald White. Don told us that newsreporter Joanne Burke had been caught two days before trying to sneak under the iron curtain. We were guided out of the Embassy by Donald's secretary, Linda Clark.

Anxious to see the ruins of Greece, we hurried to their site. Much to our surprise we found construction engineers Jim Pollard and Dave Thompson rebuilding the Parthenon which was only a part of a "master plan" under the direction of Athan Savas for the restoration of Athens. Something new was coming to Greece. Fanny Douzanis was planning a minstrel show to celebrate the completion of this project.

We were nearly barred from entry into Russia by Secret Service woman Pat Hathaway. It was not until we renewed old acquaintances that we were allowed to enter. We were astonished to note that Paul Condon had been sent to Russia from the U. S. to teach efficiency to the Russian farmers. Bob Hogan was reviewing Paul's work as material for his nearly completed novel, Was Russia's Cow Really The First To Jump Over The Moon?

On to India! Touring India we heard rumors that famed musician Beth Nelson Whitehead had found the discourt in India Music and was trying to revise their harmony. At the Taj Mahal, Rosie "Daredevil" Powers was floating in the pool in front of the building. Her secretary, Karla Lehtomaa, confirmed the rumors about Beth.

In this "Atomic Age" we decided to take the old way and flew by magic carpet to Nepal, but oddly enough we ran out of thread on the top of Mt. Everest. Perched on the peak were Shirley Small, Karol Robbins, and Roland Gangone. Roland explained that the purpose of their mission was to preserve their Modern History notes for future generations.

In Burma we bumped into Mary King and Sandra Leach teaching unruly children how to sing "Way Down Upon the Irrawaddy River." June Hall was showing the Burmese how to make Swedish meatballs.

Hannibal's Elephant Service, owned by Dave and Ronnie Guildford, guided us to outer Mongolia. There we were accosted by Ross Perry, who had been having a hard time selling Flora Dora toothpaste to the Mongolians.

We got "outer" Mongolia and headed for China to see honorable disc jockey Stuart Flanders. His words of wisdom were, "Ah—so! Very fine Chinees like to Rock and Roll." Helyn Hathaway and Cynthia Becker were running an American Laundry in Hong Kong.

We headed for Japan. There we found Sandy and Lois Erickson, owners of the SaLE movie studio, filming a sequel to "Sayonara" called "Bonjour" (the only foreign word the girls knew.)

"Aloha. Welcome to the Hawaiian Islands" shouted Ruthie Flynn from the porch of her little grass hut. Since she didn't have room for us, we stayed in Little John Tubman and Big John Swartz's hotel on Waikiki Beach.

We bought tickets for Alaska where we found Jeanne Goodreau writing a book entitled 49 Ways To Decorate Your Igloo At Christmas.

Too soon, our journey was over. Back we flew to Middleboro where a crowd of friends greeted us: botanist Donna Newton; athletic director Dianna Burrell; hotel managers Audrey Duell, Beverly Caswell, and Gloria Weston; socialites Delores Bernier, Ellen Shurtleff, Sally Benson, and Llewella Vickery; and last of all Town Census Taker, Linda McCallum.

Thus ended our trip around the world.

CLASS OF 1960

Absent: Terri Gillis, vice-president.*

In September, 1956, when we became part of the student body of M.H.S. our silhouette was recognized as that of the Class of '60. In November we elected Richard Burr, president; Terri Gillis, vice-president; Eleanor Walker, secretary; and Rod Berry, treasurer. Then in May of '57 we sponsored our "Get Acquainted" Social for the incoming freshmen.

In our Sophomore year, with Miss Whitty to guide us, we put on a most successful Christmas dance, "Winter Wonderland." The same year our silhouette grew a little more definite when Marie Di Palma and Marjorie Kinsman joined the members of the Silver "M" Society.

Now in our Junior year, led by our president, Richard Burr; vice-president, Terri Gillis; secretary, Linnea Nyberg; and treasurer, Ann Friedenfeld, and guided by Miss O'Neil, we became even more so an important part of M.H.S.

Our athletic contributions have been outstanding in the various teams of both the boys and the girls, as well represented in the Varsity Cheering Squad by Mary Medeiros, Linnea Nyberg, and Kathy Thompson.

With our Junior Prom behind us we all look forward to our Senior year when our silhouette will become complete.

Left to right: Ann Guimares, secretary; Glenna Chase, treasurer; Greg Doyle, president; and Joan Barboza, vice-president.

As another year begins to join the shadows of the past, we, the class of '61, begin to realize the contributions we have made to the progress of M.H.S.

When we arrived as freshmen, we first elected the following officers: Greg Doyle as president, Judy Hale as secretary, William Norris as vice-president, and Brad Thomas as treasurer. Each did a tremendous job of organizing our activities and conducting our class meetings.

The next contribution we made was to the Silver "M" Society. The worthy members who were chosen were Valerie Mulkern and Gregory Doyle.

The "Get Acquainted Dance" which was put on to welcome the incoming freshmen turned out successfully and a good time was had by all.

As we entered this year as sophomores, our newly elected officers were as follows: president, Greg Doyle; vice-president, Joan Barboza; secretary, Ann Guimares; and treasurer, Glenna Chase.

Kathy Jordan and Greg King joined the other members of Silver "M".

Many of the members of our class have contributed to varsity sport activities.

Barbara Skrivanek, Donna Vaughn, and Judy Hale have given their all out effort to the Varsity Cheering Squad.

Our Christmas dance was the biggest project of all. The theme, Christmas in Space, presented an interesting atmosphere and the turnout was overwhelming. Everybody seemed pleased and delighted.

Now, as our third year approaches, we know it will be just as good, if not better, than the one that is now slowly fading its way into the shadows of the past.

By entering Memorial High School we have dropped the title of the "eighth grade" and have assumed an impressive silhouette, the Class of '62. Thrilled with our new status as freshmen, we entered into high school activities while our vivacious cheerleaders Dawn Clark, Beth McCulloch, Barbara Marzelli, Nancy Dubord, Marilyn Donner, Lorna Paquin, Judy Cushing, captained by Janet Blais, cheered our football and basketball teams through their seasons.

In February we elected our class officers: Lawrence Giberti, president; Patricia Vassel, vice-president; Nancy Piver, secretary; and Robert Turcotte, treasurer, and in March Edith Murdock and Lawrence Giberti considered by us to be worthy of the Silver "M" pin, were "tapped" for membership in this society.

These, our officers and Silver "M" members, represent the entire freshman student body, consisting of pupils from Middleboro, Carver, and Lakeville. We take this opportunity to welcome the newcomers from Carver, and bid farewell to the Lakeville students who will attend their own regional high school in future years. Certainly, this is a great change in the silhouette of Memorial High.

In the Spring we held the annual "Get Acquainted" social to welcome next year's freshmen. At this point we realized our first shadow made as freshmen, had changed to a permanent silhouette, and we were soon to begin our second shadow.

First row, left to right: B. Marzelli, P. Vasel, M. White, K. Bernier, D. Clark, J. Blais, J. Gazzero, N. Piver, L. Darling.
 Second row: J. Serra, L. Giberti, W. Houlihan, B. Melville, M. Fitzsimmons, M. Donner, J. Lee, H. Deane, R. Roberts.
 Third row: B. Hull, S. Newton, W. Thorson, N. Rosenthal, D. Pitts, R. Bernier, A. Finneran, and B. Neilson.

The Wild Ones

Ready, Alvin?

Ready! 1, 2

Now, gracefully after the ball

No peeking!

Problems?

Watch that H_2SO_4 , %#!*

Viva la ENGLISH!
